Yorkshire's rich sporting heritage was the inspiration for this charming room, which will have you feeling instantly at home. Sink back into the immeasurably comfortable bed and enjoy the romantic story of the wonderful art deco wallpaper. Depicting a sprightly side saddle rider in a top hat, the wallpaper is an active self portrait of the talented artist 'JET' riding with the Bedale hunt when she lived at Claxton Hall in the 1930's. Her granddaughter Sue White discovered and resurrected this stunning sketch and turned it into a very unique wallpaper which we are very proud to hang here at The Yorke Arms.

Vixen's rich, warm colour palette is intensely restorative and its ground floor position gives it a delightful aspect directly out onto the Village Green. A simply lovely choice for your overnight stay.
